The ball room was elaborately decorated with ball room was elaborately decorated with bunting, palms and evergreens; for the background, while flags, Japanese fans, umbreilas and lanterns gave color to the scene. The favors were a great feature of the occasion, and were especially ordered from New York. They were distributed by Mrs. Walter Stilson Hutchins, Mrs. J. R. Thomas, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. Charles H. Carter, of Baltimore, and Mrs. John D. Potts, of Clincinnati. The chaperones were many of the laddes conspicuous in the social lile here this season, the grand march being led by Mr. and Mrs. Rawlins Loundes,

A. B. Lambert, who at the end had the most beans, received a silver tray, and Miss Orrick, of Baltimore, holding the most cards, received a silver and glass tea caddy. This delightful entertainment was only brought to a close by the shades of night descending and broke up by all the guests joining in the Virginia reel.

AIRS. James Penn, of Danville, Va., gave a delightful reception last week, a delightful reception last week. Included many of the young people besides the married friends of the host and hostoss, were Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Bishwell, of Danville; Mrs. Bingham, of New York: Mrs. Patten and Mrs. Hodges, of Richmond. Afrs. Pettet and Mrs. Hodges, of Richmond. Mrs. Pettet and Mrs. Thomas, of Louisville.

The children's ball last week was one of the most interesting of the fun. Miss Dorothy Christian was most attractively costumed as night and morning, and she and Miss Nell Potts, the latter as a dainty shepherd, carried off the honors in the cake walk. Miss Eugene Gray Heck and Master Jack Potts were also conspicuous among the bevy of charming children who took part. Mrs. Ellett enterlaned at a luncheon on Thursday, when her friends enjoyed her hospituilty. Amons the recent arrivals are Mr. Williams, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. George Ben Johnston and children and others from Richmond; United States Senator Daniel, General William H. making stiff fights. There is a battle royal for Commonwealth's attorney, and some hot speeches are being made. Sher-iff Solomon has an opponent, but it is elected by a large majority.

Other Fights,

Other Fights,
Among the chief peculiarities of the campaign is the fact that two men are running for "re-election" for the same office. Circuit Clerk Broaddus holds that the old county clerkship has been abolished and that he is simply standing for re-election. County Clerk Waddill holds that the old circuit clerkship has been abolished and that he is simply standing for re-election. He charges Mr. Broaddus with trying to befog the issue and with unfairness. Recently he has procured and read at the meetings the letter written by Mr. Broaddus to the County Committee announcing his candidacy. In this letter Mr. Broaddus says he is a candidate for the office of county clerk.

didacy. In this letter Mr. Broadous says he is a candidate for the office of county clerk.

Around the treasurership also there rages a battle. Mr. Brauer charges Mr. Todd with going into his house to use the telephone and then reporting to the public what he saw there—a thing Mr. Brauer declares no gentleman would do. Mr. Todd says he was invited to use the phone by a member of Mr. Brauer's family, and that he only reported that Mr. Brauer had a negro butler, and that he did this only because Mr. Brhuer was trying to plead poverty and get elected on that ground. Mr. Brauer says he never pleaded the poverty act, and that he never had a butler.

Thus it goes on ad infinitum. The Taylor embezzlement has be a hauled to the front again and made the basis of an attack on the present treasurer. Mr. Todd also accuses Mr. Brauer of being no gentleman in connection with his actions at a recent political meeting. Through it all Mr. Hechler, the third candidate, stands calm and serone. All he says is that his friend, Brauer, has been treasurer long enough; that he (Hechler) ought to be given a show now, and that later on, after he gots out, his friend Todd could get in, if the people saw fit. The fight for membership in the House of Delegates is still as hot as ever. There are six candidates, and all of them are making strong efforts to win. The latest development in this fight is the charge of Mr. Rosenegk that Mr. Gerdane was the author of a news article.

The first thing on the programme was the presentation of a one-act comedy, "The Lady of Cecil." Then a varied programme of plano solos, quartette singing, bailet dancing and tableaux were given, ending with a final flashight tableau. "Please Go 'Way and Let Me Sleep."

AFFAIRS IN DINWIDDIE

Much Interest in Politics-The Hebron

Literary Club.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HEBRON, VA., Aug. 22.—Not in many years has there been quite so much political interest in Dinwiddle county as at present. The county officers are to be elected this fall, and already the candipresent. The county of these are to the present appearance of the ordice of treasurer, have many followers, and the vote is ant to be close from the present appearance of affairs.

The recent announcement of Mr. J. E. Young, a well know merchant of Fords, has swelled the ranks of the Legislature and dates to four, the others being Messrs, Thomas E. Clark, Preston H. Bolsseau and O. J. Bolsseau.

Mr. W. H. Young, who has served the county for a number of years as sheriff, has decided not to stand for re-election, owing to business engagements. Whether Mr. Young will retire entirely from politics is not definitely known.

The Hebron Library Club was entertained at the home of Mr. James Fisher Friday avening. The Programme Committee, consisting of Misses Lottle and Lon Allen, Mr. E. S. Hobbs and Rox Micheau Reine, succeeded in presenting several new features for the pleasure of the guests. A declamation by Mr. Harry H. McLane, of Fredricksburg College, deserves especial mention. At the conclusion of the literary programme refreshments were served in abundance, after Mrs. Virginia A. Proctor, of Norfolk, and Misses Ruth Clark and Grace Lear, of Richmond, are visiting at the home of Mr. W. H. Young.

Mr. W. H. Young.

Mr. John Craig, of Paterson, N. J., who has been visiting friends in the neighborhood, returned to Paterson Wednesday.

Mr. James Lathrop, of New York, is visiting his mether and brother. In September Mr. Lathrop will sail on a tour of a few month to Europe.

Mr. Ben Rosebro, of Fredericksburg College, unade a hurried visit to the neighborhood ast week in the interest of his college, While here he was the guest of Dr. Allen.

Mr. H. Lathrop spent a few days visiting friends in Richmond last week.

Mis Hobbe, of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her uncle. Michansas City, Mo., is visiting her uncle. Allen. of Newport News, is spending several weeks with his parents. He will leave October the list for Baltimore to attend Johns Hopkins University.

Mr. Fred Nace is building a handsome home on his farm near Hebron, which he recently purchased.

Miss Etia Hill, of Richmond, is the guest of Missos Ruby and Ruth Chambers. The farmers are Jublant over crop presence is much better than was expected. In fact, the crop will be, if the splendid sensors continue, above the average.

The farmers in this noighborhood are meeting the labor trouble by planning smaller acreage and unitynting more thoroughly, and the signs of prosperity are as good as ever.

There appears to be a developing interest in farming in this section. Several young men who a few years ago seened determined to leave for the city have settled here, and from appearances are doing well.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRE-SENTS TEN DOLLARS LARNED.

SENTS TENDOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent, of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case, he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Yery often a few cents properly invested, like buying seed for his garden, will save several dollars' outlay later on. It is the same in buying chamberlain's Colle. Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy, It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.
